

PRESS RELEASE

Ehringshausen, March 01, 2018

Prof. Dr. Matthias Willems New Member of the Advisory Board at HEDRICH

Since the 01st of March 2018, the vacuum equipment supplier HEDRICH in Katzenfurt could win Prof. Dr. Matthias Willems to join as member of the advisory board and looks forward to his valuable support in this function.

The doctor in medical informatics is qualified with an MBA degree and could gain experience for years in a leading position with a global market-leading IT enterprise.

Prof. Dr. Willems is active as president of the Technical University of Middle Hesse, still the fourth biggest university in Germany, and managed to permanently enhance evolution and expansion. The excellent reputation of the THM is famous even beyond the state of Hesse. Excellently trained university graduates are very high-appreciated employees in all companies of this region

„The close cooperation of HEDRICH and the Technical University of Middle Hesse, also in common research projects, has enabled this fortunate contact for us with Prof. Dr. Willems,“ commented CEO Schulz the newest member to the advisory board. „His competency and experience will forge ahead with progress and expansion, especially in the field of digitalization and help keep that on the right course“.
